

Baptist Temple Driven From Their Home Five Years Ago Begins a New Era with a New Building

On February 14, 2001 the headlines of the Indianapolis Star literally shouted – "Feds seize Baptist Temple." Dr. Greg Dixon, Pastor emeritus, was heard to say, "Don't believe it, because members of the congregation were seen worshipping together the next evening." Evangelist Don Price, former staff Evangelist at the Baptist Temple, often said concerning adversity, "Don't cry over spilled milk; just get up and chase the cow."

This is exactly what the congregation of the Baptist Temple did under the leadership of Pastor Greg A. Dixon. In fact, Bro. Price, who has gone on to be with the Lord, would be most proud of his former church as they have literally taken his advice to heart. Instead of sitting around moping and grieving over $6 million worth of property that was literally stolen with the whole force of the U.S. Government, and then seeing their educational ministry destroyed and the buildings bulldozed to make room for a Charter school, the congregation has picked up the pieces and gone on to forge church history by amazing acts of heroism over the past five years. Their patience will be rewarded around the first Sunday of June as they move into their new 76,000 square foot building known as the Life Center at Southport, home of the Indianapolis Baptist Temple.

One of the most difficult hurdles that the church has had to overcome has been the misinformation that was spawned by the IRS and U.S. Attorney's office over the course of the long ordeal. However, though vilified, maligned, and slandered, they forged on for Christ and the gospel in spite of continued persecution, especially from the religious community and the so-called Christian Right in particular. Few to this day understand that the struggle that the Baptist Temple has been engaged in is a spiritual battle for religious liberty and the time honored Biblical doctrine of the Lordship of Christ over His church. It is not, as most believe to this day, a tax issue or rebellion against government. For instance, the sub-headline of the February 14th article mentioned above referred to the congregation as tax protestors.

One rumor that IRS agents spread to some of the lead-

Victory Declaration

The UBF is a fellowship of pastors, evangelists, missionaries, and Christian laymen and not a denomination that holds any authority over local churches. The Victory Declaration was a consensus of those present at the Unregistered Baptist Fellowship Meeting February 21, 2006 at Victory Baptist Church, Okeechobee, Florida, and is recommended to be read in all churches as God gives direction.

PREAMBLE

"Forasmuch as many have taken in hand to set forth in order a declaration of those things which are most surely believed among us" (Luke 1:1). God's Word - the Bible - declares: The Lord Jesus Christ is the Founder, Architect, Foundation, Chief Corner Stone, Chief Shepherd, and Chief Builder of His Church. The Lord Jesus Christ is the sole Head and Lord of His Church. Therefore, the Lord's Church cannot be a subject of or submit to any other head or lord in her biblical and God-ordained design, purpose, and ministry. Just as the German Confessing Church in 1934 felt it necessary to set forth a declaration as they faced the horrors of Nazism, we too believe that we have no choice but to set forth this declaration in 2006 as we face similar things that they faced, namely the total control by the state in every area of our lives, including our churches and homes. Because of this and in order to secure the Blessings of God to ourselves and our posterity, we do establish and publish this Declaration.

1. IRS control of churches

And Jesus came and spake unto them, saying, All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: (Matthew 28:18-19) Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places, Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come: And hath put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church, Which is his body, the fullness of him that filleth all in all. ([Ephesians 1:19-23)

We reject the false doctrine that government has taken the place of the God of the Bible. Jesus Christ, as He is revealed in scripture, is the incarnate Word of God, God's only begotten son, and is equal to God in that He is God. Because of this, even though we love, revere, and respect the government of the United States of America, we do not worship it. The Internal Revenue Service, and upheld by the courts, declares in Publication 1828 that it is the one and only supreme head of the church. Churches are now considered to be illegal entities if they do not espouse "clearly defined public policy." We publicly declare as the apostle Peter did on behalf of the other apostles when they were commanded not to teach in the name of Jesus Christ, "We ought to obey God rather than men." (Acts 5:29b)

2. IRS control of pastors/preachers

Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen. (Matt. 28:20) Wherefore I take you to record this day, that I am pure from the blood of all men. For I have not shunned to declare unto you all the counsel of God. (Acts 20:26-27)

We reject the false doctrine that God-called preachers are agents of the state. Our Lord Jesus Christ, in His great commission, has commanded us to leave nothing out of our teaching that He taught. Paul the apostle to the Gentiles declared to the Ephesian elders that he taught all of God's counsel. Therefore we further declare that we cannot and must not follow IRS Publication 1828 when it declares that pastors/preachers cannot discuss subjects that the IRS deems to be political from the pulpit or in official church publications. We will continue to demand our God given rights guaranteed by the states and federal constitutions. We will continue as Jude of old commanded - "Earnestly contend for the faith which was once delivered unto the saints." (v-3)

3. Pastors/preachers to be the conscience of the land

Cry aloud, spare not, lift up thy voice like a trumpet, and shew my people their transgression, and the house of Jacob their sins. (Isa. 58:1)

We reject the false doctrine that preachers are not to call their churches and nation to accountability for specific sins against God. Before heaven and earth we declare that we will not alter our preaching of the word of God for fear or favor. We will continue to cry out against sin whether it be in the church, society, or government. We will continue to stand against abortion on demand, sodomy, adultery, fornication, same sex marriage, adultery, pornography, vile entertainment, and materialism, etc. We will continue to preach the Gospel of Christ to Jew and Gentile alike, recognizing that all men are the sons of Adam in need of redemption through the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ. Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature. (Mark 16:2)

4. Pastors/preachers must submit to God over Government

Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. (Rom 13:1) If thou seest the oppression of the poor, and violent perverting of judgment and justice in a province, marvel not at the matter: for he that is higher than the highest regardeth; and there be higher than they. And Nathan said to David, Thou art the man. (2 Sam. 12:7a)

We reject the false doctrine of the unlimited submission to civil government. Our first allegiance is to God, not the state. We will continue to stand against the new world order as it brings in the kingdom of the Anti-Christ through a one world government and religion. We will not be a pawn for any political party. We will not support our President or our nation in unconstitutional and unjust wars. We will not give our daughters to forced conscription in the military. We as well oppose the forced conscription of our sons to fight under United Nations authority (commanders). We also totally reject the wholesale torturing of prisoners in violation of the Geneva Convention. We will also continue to support candidates and office holders who hold to the time honored principles of Holy Scripture regardless of party, and publicly reject those who do not. To make criminals of a nation's pastors/preachers, especially in light of the first amendment, is criminal in itself.

5. IRS defining pastors/preachers and churches as having an employee/employer relationship.

The thief cometh not, but for to steal, and to kill, and to destroy: I am come that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly. I am the good shepherd: the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep. But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep. The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. (John 10:10-13) Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things. [Galatians 6:6]

We reject the false doctrine that pastors/preachers are employees (hirelings) and that the Lord's church is a pay agent (employer) of the state. Pastors/preachers are the servants of the most High God, and called by the Holy Ghost to exercise spiritual gifts in the church, the body of Christ, whether they receive anything or not. However the church, which is the local, visible, body of Christ, is commanded to give double honor to those who labor in word and doctrine. (I Tim 5:17) We declare that all relations between the pastor/preacher and the Lord's church is of no business whatsoever to the state, and must refuse to give to the state any records belonging to the Lord.

6. Praying in Jesus' name

And whatsoever ye shall ask in my name, that will I do, that the Father may be glorified in the Son. If ye shall ask any thing in my name, I will do it. If ye love me, keep my commandments. ( John 14:13-15)

We reject the false doctrine that valid prayers can be offered to a generic God, but rather all genuine prayers public and private must be offered to Jehovah God and in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, the only true mediator between God and man. (I Tim. 2:5) The Supreme Court of the United States has outlawed the invoking of the name of the Lord Jesus Christ in public. We declare that we will never offer prayers to our God in public or private without praying in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ.

CONCLUSION

"Prove all things; hold fast that which is good" (1 Thessalonians 5:21). "Let us hold fast the profession of our faith without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised)" (Hebrews 10:23). "And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not" (Galatians 6:9).

Michael New Case Heard by 2nd Circuit

U.S. Sovereignty at Stake

By Dr. Greg Dixon

Michael New from Texas volunteered for service in the U.S. Army in 1993. At that time he took an oath of office to uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America.

In a recent letter to his supporters Michael said, "I was a good soldier too – a regular army medic who served in Kuwait and earned several medals and citations for saving the lives of fellow soldiers. But Bill Clinton, while President ordered me to strip the American flag off of my right shoulder and replace it with the United Nations Logo. He also wanted me to take orders from a U.N. General from Finland. He also ordered me to put away my American ID, and to carry an ID card which identified me as a United Nations Peacekeeper. Well I just couldn't do it. I swore to defend the American Constitution - not the U.N. Charter. The final order came down. All soldiers in my battalion were ordered to turn out in formation on October 10, 1995, wearing the U.N. uniform. On that morning, 549 men and women turned out wearing that U.N. uniform. I was the only soldier proudly wearing the authorized battle dress uniform of the United States Army."

The rest is history. New was arrested, court-martialed, and forced to leave the service with a Bad Conduct Discharge. For 10 years, Michael has fought this battle in the courts - first the military and then the civil. His case was heard February 16, 2006 in the U.S. Court of Appeals in Washington, D.C. Attorney Herb Titus represented him to a full courtroom of supporters. The decision will be announced between now and August.

If the decision favors New, then the government will appeal the case to the Supreme Court. If it favors the government, then Michael will appeal.

God's people need to pray much about this case. The very sovereignty of our nation depends on it and the fact that our children and grandchildren will be affected in the future. If they should rule against Michael, the Supreme Court can refuse to hear the case and it will be lost by default.

A Greater than Lincoln

By Dr. Greg Dixon

In Doris Kearns Goodwin's outstanding book, Team of Rivals, she closes with a quote from the great author Tolstoy on the greatness of Abraham Lincoln as follows: "I have no doubt that Lincoln will be the conspicuous figure of the war", predicted Ulysses S. Grant. "He was incontestably the greatest man I ever knew."

The poet Walt Whitman felt much the same. "I have more than once fancied myself," Whitman wrote in 1908, "the time when the present century has closed, and a new one opened, the men and deeds of that contest have become somewhat vague and mythical." He fancied that at some commemoration of those earlier days an "ancient soldier would sit surrounded by a group of young men whose eyes and eager questions would betray their sense of wonder. What! Have you seen Abraham Lincoln and heard him speak - and touched his hand?" Though conceding that the future might decide differently about the prairie President, Whitman had no problem speaking for his own generation "Abraham Lincoln seems to me the grandest figure yet, on all the crowded canvas of the nineteenth century." Even Whitman might have been amazed by the scope of Lincoln's legacy by the time the new century arrived.

In 1908, in a wild remote area of the north Caucasus, Leo Tolstoy, the greatest writer of the age, was the guest of a tribal chief "living far away from civilized life in the mountains." Gathering his family and neighbors, the chief asked Tolstoy to tell stories of the famous men in history. Tolstoy told how he entertained the eager crowd for hours with tales of Alexander,

Caesar, Frederick the great, and Napoleon. When he was winding to a close, the chief stood and said, "But you have not told us a syllable about the greatest general and greatest ruler of the world. We want to know something about him. He was a hero. He spoke with a voice of thunder; he laughed like the sunrise and his deeds were strong as the rock...his name was Lincoln and the country in which he lived is called America, which is so far away that if you should journey to reach it, he would be an old man when he arrived. Tell us of that man."

"I looked at them" Tolstoy recalled, "and saw their faces all aglow while their eyes were burning. I saw that those rude barbarians were really interested in a man whose name and deeds had already become legend." He told them everything he knew about Lincoln's home life and youth...his habits, his influence upon the people and his physical strength. When he finished, they were so grateful that they presented him with an Arabian horse.

But there is one far greater than Lincoln, or even Solomon who was far greater than Lincoln. The queen of the south shall rise up in the judgment with the men of this generation, and condemn them: for she came from the utmost parts of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon; and, behold, a greater than Solomon is here. (Luke 11:31) His name is Jesus, the Lord's Christ and the only Saviour of the world and He shall not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set judgment in the earth: and the isles shall wait for his law. (Isaiah 42:4)

DEATHS

Jack Caulfield Meets William Tyndale

Jack Caulfield, who impersonated William Tyndale, the father of our English Bible, passed from this sphere into the presence of His blessed Lord Jesus Christ, after a long struggle with cancer, this past February 7th. A memorial service was held at the Grace Community Evangelical Free Church in Spofford, NH (Chesterfield) on February 11. Brother Caulfield leaves a wife and two children, a son and daughter.

Indiana Legislature Votes For Jesus

After a federal court judge barred ceremonial prayers at the Indiana Legislature from mentioning the name of Jesus, legislative members huddled in the back of the room for private prayers before convening for the state's business.

Now both the Indiana Senate and the House have passed resolutions opposing the judge's decision.

District Judge David Hamilton had ruled in December 2005 that it was a violation of the U.S. Constitution to invoke the name of Jesus in official prayers, bringing to a halt the 189-year-tradition of opening the daily session of the Legislature in prayer.

Representative Brian Bosma (R), who called the original decision "shocking" and "intolerable," has asked the 7th U.S. Court of Appeals to halt Hamilton's order. But Legislators apparently decided not to wait around for the appeal to wind its way through the courts.

In January the Senate passed a resolution opposing the judge's decision, and in February the House took a unanimous stand for unrestricted prayer. The resolutions do not have the force of law, but do make a statement.

House Minority Leader B. Patrick Bauer (D) said, "It's time to bring our prayer from the back of the room to the front of the room,"

Representative Bill Friend (R), who sponsored the House resolution, said, "The content of prayer should be protected from the court's interference."

It is, Mr. Legislator – it's called the Constitution.

Is It Over In Dover?

By Jim Grove

Pastor, Heritage Baptist Church
Loganville, Pennsylvania

In December 2005, U.S. Circuit Court Judge John Jones rendered a judicial decision in the famous Dover, PA Intelligent Design Trial. The trial could have been labeled the "Scopes Monkey Trial in Reverse." The Scopes Trial was about the teaching of evolution in public school. As it turned out, Dover was about the teaching of Christianity in public school. Scopes has had a long standing effect in the arena of education. Dover, likewise, will have a lasting effect. However, this is not the end for the creationism or Intelligent Design (ID) controversy. The scientific evidence for creationism is mounting, and the lies of evolution are being exposed more and more day by day.

Judge Jones ventured far afield with his contemporary view and application of the constitution to render a decision in the case. It seems that Jones wanted to leave his mark on judicial history in being the judge to give a definitive pronouncement on ID. The following remarks reveals somewhat of an inflated opinion of his importance. "The Court is confident that no other tribunal in the United States is in a better position than are we to traipse into this controversial area. . . . Finally, we will offer our conclusion on whether ID is science not just because it is essential to our holding that an Establishment Clause violation has occurred in this case, but also in the hope that it may prevent the obvious waste of judicial and other resources which would be occasioned by a subsequent trial involving the precise question which is before us." (p.63 - emphasis added)

Contrary to the Judge's claim, a determination of whether ID is science was plainly NOT essential to the disposition of the case. Jones' suggestion that he wanted to determine whether ID is science, so that no other judge need investigate the facts for himself, is a bit troubling. It seems he was quite taken in by the ACLU's approach to handling the case.

Although I despise the ACLU, they did hit the case full steam ahead leaving no stone unturned. They lead and allowed the scientific, philosophical and religious prognosticators to run on with their "science falsely so called" diatribes to impress and persuade those ignorant of the facts and falsehoods. If the defense, Thomas More Law Center, would have defended with as much fervency, there may have been a bit different outcome.

Apostates and Fools

My own personal attempt to get the lead defense attorney, Richard Thompson, to go after Dr. Kenneth Miller (author of the Dover science textbook, which is filled with lies) and expose him for the liar and deceiver he really is went unheeded. Dr. Haught, the Plaintiff's theological expert, should have and could have been very easily exposed for the absolute unbelieving apostate that he actually is. These are only fools who profess that they are wise.

Consequently, not only the judge, but the news media and spectators, were taken in by their "great swelling words of vanity." Allowing a dead and trespassing world to be exposed to such an over abundance of empty verbiage without challenge only deteriorates into additional unbelief and makes fools of them as well.

Additionally, the contemporary interpretation and application of the U.S. Constitution concerning the "separation of church and state" (pg 138 of Judge Jones' order) went unchallenged. The Judge clearly ruled in this vein, and not with original intent of the Constitution in mind.

The Judge was clearly aggravated and incensed about the attempted cover up by two of the school board members in reference to where the money came from to purchase the copies of the ID-promoting books Of Pandas and People to be placed in the library. I believe this helped motivate the judge's decision against the policy of ID. He stated, "The citizens of Dover area were poorly served by the members of the Board who voted for the ID Policy. It is ironic that several of these individuals, who so staunchly and proudly touted their religious convictions in public, would time and again lie to cover their tracts and disguise the real purpose behind the ID Policy."

My advice to anyone who is headed to Federal Court or any court is that they go with clean hands. Although the Lord doesn't always give victory, that is the only real way God can bless and give victory.

Unfortunately, the ACLU is using this decision – and the subsequent multi-million dollar attorney's fees that must be paid by the Dover school district – as a hammer all across the country to stifle and silence school boards who were poised to implement an ID Policy. It does seem at this juncture that all of American society is attempting to purge itself of all vestiges of Christianity. Judge Jones' decision is only one among many. Even though this particular battle was sadly lost, the philosophical and religious war is not over. Evidence against evolution is mounting daily.

Where Do We Go From Here?

R.L. Dabny gave some interesting and prophetic quotes in reference to the State Free (Public) School System in the late 1800's. He quotes Dr. Francis Wayland, "Intellectual cultivation may exist without the existence of virtue or love of right. In this case its only effect is to stimulate desire; and this unrestrained by the love of right must eventually overturn the social fabric which is at first erected."

He also quotes a Dr. Griffin, of a former generation, as saying, "To educate the mind of a bad man without correcting his morals is to put a sword into the hands of a maniac." He cites John Locke as well, "It is virtue, then, direct virtue, which is the hard and valuable part to be aimed at in education" "If virtue and a well-tempered soul be not got and settled so as to keep out ill and vicious habits, languages and science, and all the other accomplishments of education, will be to no purpose but to make worse or more dangerous man."

Dabny himself states, "Man fulfils the end of his existence, not by right cognition, but by right moral actions. . . Hence as there cannot be in any soul a non-Christian state which is not anti-Christian, it follows that any training which attempts to be non-Christian is therefore anti-Christian." In reference to the State's perceived responsibility to educate children he says, "The theory that the children of the Commonwealth are the charge of the Commonwealth is a pagan one, derived from heathen Sparta and Plato's heathen republic, and connected by regular, logical sequence with legalized prostitution and the dissolution of the conjugal tie." In refuting the State's argument that "it costs less money to build school-houses than jails," he states, "But what if it turns out that the State's expenditure in school-houses is one of the things which necessitates the expenditures of jails? The ing citizens of the city was that the Baptist Temple was the militia posing as a church. One judge was over heard to say that IRS agents told him that they were using the parking lot of the church to sell used cars. Yet another rumor was that IBT had a large cache of weapons stashed. After the property was seized, authorities went over every inch of ground looking for them, but obviously there was nothing to find.

The next Sunday after the raid, the church met at the fine arts auditorium at Manual High School, just down the street from the IBT property. Letters to the editor in the Star mocked by asking why IBT would meet in a public school when the church didn't believe in public education. This was because their church school was known throughout the city. Apparently people didn't consider the fact that the IBT members had been supporting two school systems, one being their own at great cost and sacrifice, and also the public schools through their tax dollars.

Ellery Hunsley higher than he's ever been!

Amish putting the roof on the new IBT.

When summer came, because the high school auditorium had no air-conditioning, they moved to the banquet hall at Jonathan Byrd's Cafeteria, which is approximately twelve miles South in Greenwood, but some didn't follow them because of the distance. There were times that they had to begin services earlier because of prior commitments of the Cafeteria, and some Sundays they had to find other meeting places altogether. One Sunday in particular they couldn't have a morning service at all.

Pastor Greg A. Dixon with Deacon Wayne DeVellen, who spent many hours in supervision and work on the building.

Baptismal services were held in yet another Baptist church some miles away or in the motel swimming pool next to the cafeteria. On one occasion, Pastor Dixon baptized his niece Erika in the bathtub at his house because of inclement weather! Through all of these adversities, the members have continued to be faithful to Christ.

Under these extreme circumstances the following accomplishments were recorded in the five years since they were driven from their property. The church maintained their educational system, which started in 1971, through the good graces of the Garfield Christian Church, and graduated the 30th class in May of 2001, which sadly will be the last. Also during their pilgrimage, there have been over 300 professions of faith in Christ, and the attendance has increased more than 20%. Four churches in Indianapolis have been started, which include a Black and a Hispanic church. One of the inner city churches has had a high day of nearly 100. The missions giving has also increased, with over $800,000 given to mission projects since the raid. The congregation sent as many as 40 men to Haiti, Mexico and Honduras to build four church buildings, which was also financed by the members. There have also been several mission trips to foreign fields taken by the young people.

The huge new facility, formerly a health club, has been renovated by large numbers of church members and their friends, and will house an auditorium, class rooms and fellowship facilities. The address is 4002 Southport Road and is located two blocks west of I-65 South.

Louise Cromer, Jeanie Hunsley and Sherry Burns kept the work crews well fed.

All are encouraged to celebrate this great victory with Indianapolis Baptist Temple, which will be widely advertised as the June opening day approaches!

Morris Dees Exposed Big Time

League of the South Highlights Molestation Charges Against Dees

By Dr. Greg Dixon

Bullies only last so long - just about as long as it takes to expose them for what they are really worth. One of the most notorious bullies finally got his comeuppance, as the old timers used to put it, real good recently when the League of the South showed up when he spoke at the University of South Carolina and circulated flyers about the child molestation charges that his wife brought against him many years ago in a divorce case.

Morris Dees, bully extraordinaire, is Founder and Chief Counsel of the mis-named Southern Poverty Law Center of Montgomery, Alabama. One thing Dees is famous for is the SPLC's Hate Groups Listing, which supposedly exposes Extremist groups in America such as the neo-nazis and the Ku Klux Klan.

Few know that prior to 911, Dees, along with the Anti-Defamation League, ACLU and other organizations of this type, did domestic surveillance for various governmental agencies such as the IRS, U.S. Justice Department and other official alphabet soupers. They could infiltrate various groups and then turn the information over voluntarily and no laws were broken. Now the government just main lines it through unwarrantless wire taps, etc.

Once a person or group shows up on Dees Hate Group list, it's all over as far as having any influence in society, because that list, grouping them with the dregs of society such as the Aryan Nation, Skin heads, American Nazi Party and various stripes of radical white supremacists goes to every prosecutor, judge and law enforcement agency in America.

Many people do not realize that Dees and his so called Klan Watch are the ones who aided the IRS in turning public opinion against the pastor and congregation of the Indianapolis Baptist Temple. Dees put Dr. Greg Dixon and IBT on his Hate Groups List - Extremists in America in 1995. The list was printed in the April 15 issue of the Air Force

Times of that same year, and since then two books have been circulated by Dees outfit which included IBT and Dr. Dixon among these "enemies" of America. One is False Patriots - The Threat of Antigoovernment Extremists. The other is The Terrorist Next Door.

Spawned by this attack, there was a Home Grown Extremists Seminar in Nashville, Tennessee in August of 1999 sponsored by the International Association of Undercover Officers in which they studied Dr. Greg Dixon and the Indianapolis Baptist Temple for a half-day, according to Carolyn Finally someone got tired of Dees' underhanded tactics and fought back. Following is the report from the April 5, 2006 American Free Press Net. Issue # 14.

"Dees spoke at the University of South Carolina's "Carolina Productions Lecture Series," a student-run campus organization, on Feb. 27. An estimated 300 people, including more than 30 law enforcement personnel, attended. Some professors ordered students to attend; some gave extra credit for attending. Considering how embarrassing it proved for Dees, his faculty cheerleaders probably regret such pressure.

Dees labeled the League of the South as "racist" and "terrorist" in publications put out by his Southern Poverty Law Center (SPLC) and public statements.

But the League is "racially neutral with members of different races," said Lexington attorney Larry Salley, a member of the board.

H.K. Edgetton of Black Mountain, a black man noted for supporting southern heritage, called Dees a "poverty pimp" during the question-and-answer period.

But it was Salley who had the most fun with Dees.

"Salley prepared and passed out a well-documented brochure that appeared to be the official program, featuring Dees's photograph and the statement 'With Justice for All' on the cover," The Times Examiner reported.

Inside, after the anticipated Dees-friendly words, the brochure transitioned into the harsh facts with footnotes citing the source of the material. Dees disciples, in blissful ignorance, helped hand out the brochures.

A brief introduction to
Morris Dees High saint of institutional anti-white hatred

QUESTION: Who is Morris Seligman Dees, and why have my school administrators and local government officials had him here to speak?

ANSWER: Dees is the self-styled leader of an otherwise Jewish-led movement to destroy organizations representing White Americans. As the top person successful at kidnapping White organizations, and as the "leader" at shamelessly inflating the laughable "charges" passed to major news and Internet libraries by celebrity Southern churches, "scholars," "authors," etc., Morris Dees is the chief of institutional anti-White hatred.

Consequently, Morris Dees is the best representative of the credibility and honesty of the media and government's process of propaganda and lies for White America, White interests, and White groups.

He fooled your teachers and elected officials, don't let him fool you!

Morris Dees' credibility as an extremely vulgar, immoral, and dishonest individual.

Don't take one word for it: This flyer doesn't touch the bottom tip of the iceberg of lies on Dees. Conduct a simple GOOGLE search for "Morris Dees." You will immediately be presented with a vast ocean of documents that expose the political operations, institutional neo-nazi agendas, ongoing efforts to defame the Klan, a CHURCH, a CHURCH, a CHURCH, an AMERICAN UNIVERSITY, a CHILD MOLESTATION (conducted by multiple family members to cover proceedings), and more of all a CRIMINAL FRAUD who has obtained something close-out of approximately 240 million dollars, making this "charity" the best in the nation.

Dees' Southern newspaper, the MONTGOMERY ADVERTISER, won a Pulitzer award for its excellent 1994 in-depth reports of Dees' deceptive fund raising and fraud.

BARBARA MULLIGAN had this to say about Dees and his sponsored Southern Poverty Law Center: "Today, the SPLC's budget is $20 million, and it spends more on such as fund-raising, $5.75 million last year, on its drive on legal services for victims of civil rights abuse. The American Institute of Philadelphia gives the entire one of the more ratings of any group it monitors."

In the Aug. 3, 1998 edition of USA Today, former Dees confidante Stephen Bright is quoted saying Dees is "a fraud who has defiled a lot of very beautiful, well-intentioned people." Bright is one of dozens and dozens of former Dees associates both online, or in news columns in print.

Dees and the people who brought him here to speak will distribute this information on the propaganda work of anti-White propaganda (etc), some of them actually believe this. In reality, we are not normal people you like to see who actually care enough to speak out against the hypocrisy of systems that are designed to keep us in a state of ignorance. Go to the source yourself: GOOGLE "Morris Dees."

Dees is the system's hero; DEES IS ABSOLUTE SCUM, what does that tell you?

Fankhanel, a free lance reporter from St. Petersburg, Florida who infiltrated the meeting and reported on it.

During our four year battle with the IRS and U.S. Justice Department, we had this information thrown up to us continually by the media both locally and nationally. In fact, the Indianapolis Star did a huge article in the Sunday Focus Section on November 8, 1998 entitled "In Indiana, It's Militia Lite" in which they identified IBT as the center of militia activity in Indiana. Be assured, having gone through it, there is no way, once targeted in this manner, anyone can win in the courts or the court of public opinion.

fruits of the system show that such is the result, and hence the plea for the State's intrusion is utterly delusive."

In his reference to the Bible and education he writes, "This book is, in point of fact, the source from which the American people draw their sense of obligation, and of its metes and bounds, so far as they have any." He further goes on to say, "There can be, therefore, no true education without moral culture, and no true culture without Christianity." And, again, concerning the State as educator Dabny says, "But if the State is the educator, in America, at least, education must be secularized totally."

He had some insights which seemed to ahead of his time; however we are seeing his statements come to fruition now in our time. He predicted a hostility toward Christianity by stating, "Does someone say that practically this showing is exaggerated, for he is teaching some purely secular course, without any maiming of his subjects or prejudicing Christianity? If his teaching is more that a temporary dealing with some corner of education, the fact will be found to be that it is tacitly anti-Christian; overt assaults are not made; but there is a studied avoidance which is in effect hostile. There can be no neutral position between two extremes, where there is no middle ground, but "a great gulf fixed."

Non-Christian Is Anti-Christian

Dabny emphatically knew that, "a non-Christian training is literally an anti-Christian training." In knowing that the State is not the tool of evangelism and its proper business is not to convert souls from original sin, he stated, "True, but neither has it a right to become an anti-evangelical agency, and resist the work of the spiritual Commonwealth. While the State does not authorize the theological beliefs of Christian citizens, neither has it a right to war against them. While we have no right to ask the State to propagate our theology, we have a right to demand that it shall not oppose it. But to educate souls thus is to oppose it, because a non-Christian training is an anti-Christian training."

He foresaw that the State would have a great influence over the Church as a result of education and commented, "In fact the Church does not and cannot repair the mischief which her more powerful, rich, and ubiquitous rival, the secularized State, is doing in thus giving, under the guise of a

May UBF Meeting in Pennsylvania

Baptist Historian Slated to Speak

James R. Beller will be among the scheduled speakers at the Mid-Atlantic UBF Meeting, May 22-23, 2006 at Heritage Baptist Church in Loganville, Pennsylvania.

James Beller is a pastor, author and speaker whose passion is preserving and teaching Baptist history and heritage.

He seeks to awaken Baptists to the fact that our heritage is being systematically rewritten, hidden, and erased – not only by secularists, but by Christians as well. True Baptist history is being supplanted by Fundamentalist and Reconstructionist history, and the foundations of ancient Baptist knowledge are rapidly eroding. He maintains that the principles of American liberty are in fact Baptist principles. As we lose our Baptist history, we lose our Baptist distinctives and our uniquely Baptist testimony, and thus forfeit our place of spiritual leadership in a modern America that desperately needs a guiding light.

Through his lively presentation, Beller reconnects us to our true Baptist roots, and the great Baptists of the past – Shubal Stearns, Isaac Backus, Samuel Harris and others – are once again given the proper place of influence.

He is author of The Coming Destruction of the Baptist People; The Soul of St. Louis; and America in Crimson Red: The Baptist History of America. He also maintains a website at www.baptistchristian-worldview.com.

Beller is pastor of the Arnold Baptist Tabernacle near St. Louis, Missouri. James and his wife Vicki have four children.

In addition to Mr. Beller, speakers will include Dr. Greg Dixon and Brother Joe Coley, pastor of Victory Baptist Church in Childersburg, Alabama.

Tuesday afternoon, a seminar on Public Preaching will be presented.

For further information about the UBF meeting, see ad on page 11 or contact Host Pastor Jim Grove of Heritage Baptist Church at 717-428-1765 or lmppo@nfdc.net.

non-Christian, an anti-Christian training."

He prophesied in saying, "And we have seen that their complete secularization is logically inevitable. Christians must prepare themselves then, for the following results: All prayers, catechisms, and Bibles will ultimately be driven out of the schools."

Please remember this which was written by Dabny in the 1870's has now come upon us in this present generation.

Separation of School and State

Because the public education system in America has gravitated to, and is in fact, government education with an agenda and vengeance upon true Christianity and Christ Himself, where do we go from here? Repair or reform of the hijacked educational process of America is not an option. If all of those who are now working for reform would realize that "separation of school and state" is the only viable course at this juncture, there would come a much needed change – without which future generations are doomed to becoming just more socialistic creatures and secular pawns of the all powerful State. If any semblance of sanity is to be brought back to the educational process, parents must claim their filial rights and responsibility, and stop exposing their progeny to the socialistic welfare scheme called public education. This is really another subject for another time.

The Dover case is only another illustration that the government's educational process is not fit for human consumption. Our only hope is escaping from the corrupt system, and demanding that the State release our future generations from its socialistic grip.

FEMA Preachers?

By Dr. Greg Dixon

Following is information that came to the attention of the Trumpet recently from the pastor of the Grace Shepherd Church (location withheld) that should send chills down the spine of every preacher in America. Are we nearing the time when "Big Brother" will cash in his chips and begin collecting sweat equity from the preachers of America for the benefits of tax-exemption and tax-deductible gifts that they have been living off of for these seventy-five years? Read on and weep.

Subject: FEMA/Plum Island

Greetings,

About three months ago, I was invited to become a part of a group implementing federal FEMA/Homeland Security directives in our county. I couldn't pass it up!

Lots of interesting and bothersome info being discussed at these meetings...

Local FEMA's ('across the US' according to a spokesman at our local meeting) are gathering Ministers (Pastors) to help in the event of a "declaration of Martial Law or like police action following a declared emergency or quarantine due to an act of bioterrorism". The discussion centered around the need of 'locals' to "quell the cowboy mentality" of farmers who may have their stock or crops consequently confiscated and destroyed...According to our spokesman, Ministers will be especially helpful because "you guys and gals can use Romans 13"

I preached this very thing nearly 20 years ago before a group of "independent" Baptist preachers in Indianapolis from similar material that I had at that time. After I spoke an elderly pastor, respected by all, came to the platform (to speak next) and rebuked me, kindly, before the entire group and that ended that. Obviously there was no need to give an invitation for the preachers present to repent of their unbiblical entanglement with government and begin leading their churches into a biblical relationship with Christ rather than continuing their unholy alliance with the State through IRS recognition and tax-exemption. Now it is nearly too late if it isn't already. Government is also going to take our unscriptural teaching on Romans 13 and shove it down our throats. The chickens are coming home to roost.

"The cover story of Harper's magazine's November 2000 issue exposed the SPLC's alarmist fundraising tactics with which it raises large sums that are not used to help those it purports to serve. The Southern Center for Human Rights' Stephen Bright charged that [Dees] is a fraud who has milked a lot of very wonderful, well-intentioned people. If it's got headlines, Morris is there."

Quoting from the Alabama Court of Civil Appeals, CIV2114 (1979), the brochure says:

"Of all the damning indictments against Morris Dees, the worst comes from his closest connection. He was sued by his ex-wife, Maureene Bass Dees, who alleged that he had committed incest with his stepdaughter and future daughter-in-law."

"When Dees saw the program he was visibly shaken," the paper quotes Salley. "I stood up and asked him why 55 percent of the SPLC's income went into his pocket, and he tried to shout me down. Then other members of our group tried to ask him similar questions, and they shut down the question-and-answer period."

Carolina Productions "is taxpayer funded and in the past they have had groups such as transvestite exotic dancers," Salley said.

The following night Dees spoke at Western Carolina University where about 200 attendees received the same brochure.

Dees refused to comment on the well-deserved roasting he took."

The goal of the SPLC, ACLU, Americans for the Separation of Church and State and other such groups have one goal, and that is to totally destroy the First Amendment of the U.S. Constitution. The media should be first in line to expose these groups for the fraud that they are, but obviously they have been infiltrated with like minded or feeble-minded like them.

Precious Memories Ministry

By Bill Hathaway

Recently I received the following information from Dr. Bill Hathaway, who I have known for over fifty years. In fact, I introduced him and his late wife Dixie when we were students at Baptist Bible College in 1952. She and I were members of the Wichita Baptist Tabernacle, and also graduated from East High School together in 1950. When Bro. Hathaway told of the new ministry that the Lord has led him to start, it immediately struck a chord, because I realize that most of the churches of America need a similar ministry. If anyone is interested, they can contact Bro. Hathaway to get information on how to proceed. - Ed.

Although I have been preaching for over 55 years, with 25 years in Japan, and although I have officiated at perhaps hundreds of funerals, I never really knew what a person experiences when their life-mate goes through the "valley of the shadow of death" until my dearest friend on earth, my wife of over 51 years of marriage, went to be with the Lord.

The Bible says "sorrow not as those without hope," but there is no escape from sorrow. Most people tell me "I can't imagine" when speaking of losing their spouse. I don't have to say that anymore. I know what it is like. I have gone through the hardest year of my entire life. It is just hard to believe that Dixie is not here. The Community Hospices of America in Springfield, Missouri were such a great blessing to me during Dixie's last 17 days. Since then, I have attended their weekly support group meetings. They are wonderful people and they do a tremendous job.

Recently, it seems I have met quite a few people who just lost their spouses. A few weeks ago, I felt led to go by a house we once owned in Mt. Vernon, Missouri to see how the people were doing there. When I knocked on the door, the wife came to the door with tears in her eyes. When I asked what happened, she said that her husband just passed away. I was able to console her, cried with her and to have prayer with her.

I went to see a restaurant owner sometime ago, only to find out that he has just passed away. About a week ago I visited a clock repair service, and the owner said that his mother just passed away and his dad was having a hard time. I have talked to two pastors and both, one a pastor of over 55 years experience who also has a wife in heaven, have offered to help in the Springfield area.

"What shall we call this ministry?" was the question asked by many. I sent letters to many pastors asking their suggestions. One pastor wrote with the suggestion to call it "Precious Memories." Wow! What a name! Everyone says that after one dies, they have memories. Also, by calling it "Precious Memories," we already have a theme song. Thus, the "Precious Memories Support Ministry" was born.

Rev. Paul Hathaway, my son and pastor of my former church, Northside Baptist Temple in Mt. Vernon, has since offered his church to start one there. With my Japanese services in Springfield which I conduct on a regular basis and the SOS Soul winning ministry and my radio ministry, I felt I was already spread pretty thin. However, I see the tears in the eyes of those I have recently met, several in Mt. Vernon, and I just couldn't say "no."

People need help. I don't know how anyone who does not know the Lord, can go through this deep dark valley of life. I know some like that and they need the Lord.

We meet once a month for a pot-luck luncheon and a time when I have a devotion geared to encouraging these who are going through this time of sorrow. Precious Memories Support Ministry has had two meetings so far, and those who attend go away encouraged and happy to have been with others who have gone through the same valley.

And now, at the suggestion of Dr. Greg Dixon, I recommend churches all over the United States start a Precious Memories Support Ministry. I have prepared a brochure that I will send to anyone who is interested.

RETIREMENT

I worked years for someone else
So that I could retire.
I dreamed of sleeping late
And sitting by the fire.

I dreamed of long vacations,
Enjoying stage and song.
But let me set you straight on that concept,
It is simply wrong.

I did junk my safety glasses
And the work boots that cramped my toes.
But, the rest of it had a mind of it's own
And this is how it goes.

My wife had been thinking of retirement
And had plans of her own.
She had spent much time with the kids
But, now they are grown and gone.

We sold our cattle and horses
So we wouldn't have that chore.
I poured concrete over my alarm clock
But I still wake up at four.

I get my eyes checked on Monday.
My wife gets hers checked the next day.
I go for a colon check on Wednesday
And pass my wife going the other way.

I have a dental appointment on Thursday.
My wife goes for a test on her heart.
Friday we go get prescriptions filled
And browse a while at Wal-mart.

Saturdays we just stay home
And try to get the paper work right.
We can't take any overnight trips
'Cause we can't see to drive at night.

Restroom confusion keeps us out of church on Sunday
And we really do hate that.
There's nothing wrong with the restrooms,
We just can't remember where they're at.

We don't need to plan next week,
Just make sure we can drive.
And not forget where the hospitals and clinics are.
We'll need them to survive.

So don't build your castles too high, my friend,
While strolling through the clover.
This is a typical week in retirement
And on Monday we start all over!
